Vienna, Aug. 21.

GEneral Count Guido Staremberg having left 3 or 400 Men moſt of them Croatian Militia to guard the Lines of Oedenburg, march'd with his Army of 11000 Men to Berendorf, and is encamp'd there waiting to be joyn'd by the 5 Imperial Regiments that are coming from the Rhine, of which that of Hohewzolleru is already arriv'd in our Neighbourhood. Soon after Count Staremberg was gone, a ſtrong Body of the Malecontents led by Anthony and Daniel Eſterhaſi, and Bothiani, fell upon thoſe who were left to Guard the Lines, and after a vigorous Reſiſtance put them all to the Sword. After which they made a great Ravage as far as Ebenfurt. The Malecontents who laid Siege to Gran the Beginning of this Month, carry it on very vigorouſly; General Staremberg has ſent a Detachment to endeavour to relieve that Place; but that Detachment not being very ſtrong, and Prince Ragotsky covering that Siege with a Body of the beſt Troops of the Malecontents, we are under ſome Apprehenſion the Place will be loſt. Since the 24th of July when General Rabutin began to march out of Tranſilvania for Hungary, we have receiv'd no certain Account of his Motions. The Emperor has declar'd Count Thaun, who is Lieutenant General Field-Marſhal, General of Artillery; and Count Fels who is likewiſe in Piemont and a Major General, Lieutenant-General Field-Marſhal. The Loyal Hungarians that attend this Court, having in a Conference among themſelves, examin'd the Cauſes of the Rupture of the Negociation of Peace with the Hungarians, have drawn up their Sentiments thereupon in Writing, and deliver'd them to the Emperor, beſeeching him to grant a new Armiſtice in Hungary: But no Anſwer is yet return'd to them.

Baden, Aug. 26. We have confirm'd Advice, that the Deputies of the Roman Catholick Cantons of Lucern, Ury, Underwalden, and Zug, have ſolemnly ſworn at Lucern to the renew'd Treaty of Alliance with the State of Milan, after a Conference of 9 Hours with the Deputies of the Roman Catholick Cantons, of Sweyts, Fribourg, Appenzel, and of the Abbot of St. Gall, who refus'd to joyn with in that Solemnity. Aſſoon as it was over the Marquis de Bereti Landi invited to a great Entertainment all the ſaid Deputies, as well thoſe that had refus'd as thoſe that had ſworn, in hopes they would all come; but above 40 Perſons abſented themſelves. When the Entertainment was over he diſtributed the Preſents accuſtom'd to be given on ſuch an Occaſion, that is to ſay, to every Deputy a Gold Chain with a Medal worth 67 Piſtoles, to the Gentlemen their Aſſiſtants a Chain and Medal each worth 25 Piſtoles, and to every Page 25 Crowns in Silver. 'Tis very much queſtion'd, whether the French who have expended 400000 Crowns to bring their Affair to the Condition it is now in, will find their Account in it.

Hamburg, Auguſt 31. The 19th Inſtant we receiv'd ſeveral Letters from Saxony by the Way of Halle, importing, that King Staniſlaus was on the March with an Army of about 20000 Men towards Luſatia, and that Prince Alexander Sobieski was following him with 8 or 9000 Men more, with Deſign to invade Saxony. This had occaſion'd ſo great a Conſternation in that Country, that ſeveral of the chief Families have remov'd their Effects to Halle, Magdebourg, and Berlin; and has had ſuch Effect here, that a ſtop is put to moſt of the Goods which was ſending to Saxony: Yet ſome ſtill queſtion the Truth of this Rumour.

Hague, Sept. 3. An Expreſs from Munſter brought Advice the 1ſt Inſtant, that of 35 Canons of that Cathedral, 20 had elected the Biſhop of Paderborne for their Biſhop, the other 15 abſenting themſelves. This News caus'd great Joy here; but it was abated by the Letters that came by the ordinary Poſt: Which gave an Account that the Canons who made that Election, had the Weakneſs afterwards to publiſh a Placard, importing that they referr'd it to the Pope to decide the Validity of their Proceeding, and that in the mean time all things ſhould remain in ſtatu quo, and that even the Regency ſhould continue in the Hands of the Chapter. Thoſe who are for ſupporting the Biſhop of Paderborn, could wiſh that thoſe Canons had not proceeded to that Election, or after they done it would have maintain'd it, and not have left it diſputable by referring the Deciſion of it to the Pope: For they have not only been wanting to their own Prerogatives, but the Potentates who might think themſelves intereſted to ſupport this Election, cannot well meddle in it now. This Advantage however will reſult to the Publick, that there will be no Troubles upon this ſubject, or at leaſt they are ſuſpended. The States having lately written to the Republick of Venice, to deſire them not to favour the Enemy, but to have Regard for the Troops that are in Italy in the pay of this State, the Republick have return'd an Anſwer in very obliging Terms; but at the ſame time proteſt they are determin'd to perſiſt in an Exact Neutrality. Letters from the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, left him at Goito the 20th Inſtant. His Highneſs writes, that having Intelligence the Enemy were coming to meet him and diſpute his March, he had determin'd to venture a Battle with them. And his Aide de Camp writes, that as the Poſt was going away, an Alarm was given, and that if it ſhould prove to be the Enemy, an Engagement would infallibly enſue. The Letters from France vary concerning the Siege of Turin; but tell us the City may hold out till the 10th or 12th of this Month; which

The following Letter is from Captain Bouler, Commander of the Hunter Fireship.

Alicant, July 30. On Sunday Morning we took the Town of Alicant by Storm, attacking it by Land and Sea. I have not time to give you the Particulars of the Siege, being Ashore and hear the Ships going to Sail; but I had the Honour of Commanding 200 English and Dutch Seamen on the Attack, and in taking the Town we did not lose 10 Men, but before lost on an Outwork above 100 in one Night: The Enemy is retir'd into the Castle, and says he'll loose it Inch by Inch; but we have begun to Play with 4 Mortars this Morning, and hope to make him comply shortly. I am, &c.

The humble Address of the Two Grand Juries, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Suffolk, at the Assizes held for the said County at Bury St. Edmonds, July 20. 1706.

Most Gracious Soveraign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects assembled together upon this publick occasion for the Service of Your Majesty and our Country, desire humbly to congratulate the Signal Advantages accrued to both by the late Glorious Success of Your Majesty's Arms.

The distant Scenes of Action in which Your Armies are employ'd shew how extensive Your care is, and the happy progress they make in all parts demonstrates how just Your Measures are, and how wise Your Conduct: More particularly ought that great Victory to be distinguished which has been obtain'd in Flanders by the Forces of Your Majesty and Your Allies under the Command of His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, a General who had the Honour in one Day before to drive out of his Dominions a Prince unwary enough to make himself Your Majesty's Enemy, and has now at one other blow restor'd a whole Country to its Lawful Soveraign who has the happyness of being Your Ally.

By these decisive Actions England finds its real security establish'd, and Your Subjects have the Satisfaction to see that the Person Your Majesty has made choice of to lead Your Armies, aims at procuring to his Country Victory in War as well as to himself Glory in Battle: Hence therefore we have a fair Prospect open'd to us of a Safe, an Honourable, and a Speedy Peace; and as the restoring that Publick Blessing to us is what only remains to compleat the Glory of Your Majesty's Reign, so we pray that You may soon Accomplish that; and afterwards may long enjoy the principal fruits of it, by Reigning many happy Years a most renown'd Princes over a flourishing and a grateful People.

This Address was presented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dysert and Sir Robert Davers, Bar. Knights of the Shire for the said County, being introduced by Mr. Secretary Harley.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seatons, &c. are ineffectual.
